Sir:

RESPONSE

Responsive to the Office Action dated August 25, 2004, the applicants elect, with traverse, the subject matter of the Examiner's Group V, for further prosecution.

Examination of all the claimed subject matter is requested, along with withdrawal of the restriction requirement, as the Examiner has not established, such as by citation of an allegedly novelty-destroying prior art, that the subject matter of claims do not share a common or corresponding special technical feature. While the structure of the claimed subject matter may be different, as indicated by the Examiner on page 3 of the Office Action dated August 25, 2004, the difference in structure alone is not believed to define separately patentable subject matter under the PCT Rules. The Examiner is either requested to establish, by citation of prior art, that the claimed subject matter fails to share a corresponding special technical feature, or withdraw the restriction requirement and examine all of the claimed subject matter.

Respectfully submitted,
